

TTE Hosts AERA Luncheon

April 23, 2025 - In Denver, Colorado, the Teaching and Teacher Education (TTE) program area hosted a luncheon for faculty members and past and present Ph.D. students attending the AERA Annual Meeting. Held between sessions, the gathering brought together more than fifteen attendees including faculty, guests, current doctoral/post-doctoral students and candidates and graduated students currently working in the field.

During the lunch, attendees shared insights from AERA presentations, discussed ongoing research projects, and explored potential collaborations. The event underscored TTE's commitment to mentorship, community, and the mutual professional growth. By creating a space for candid dialogue across career stages, the luncheon strengthened professional connections that will continue to enrich teaching and research initiatives throughout the year.

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
Collaborative for Innovation
in Teacher Education

